

Lisa Young

Realized Performance Executive Services

Lisa is our corporate administrator with an extensive management background. For the past 15 years her organizational skills and energetic personality has been a factor as a team motivator, organizer and project coordinator for large corporate law firms to mid-size firms. She's especially adept with her abilities to multi-task, schedule, coordinate and organize any size project.

Lisa understands the importance of project organization and having projects proceed on a timely schedule - on time and on budget - to have any project obtain its fullest of potential. Her record for coordinating our projects from initial conception to completion has made her a vital asset to Realized Performance.

Beyond her administrative and project skills, Lisa has a background in the legal insurance defense litigation. She's been successful as management team coordinator for law firms in Illinois and Indiana. She has also worked directly with the Porter County Department of Family and Children's Services in Indiana. She's also a member of the Court Appointed Special Advocate program for children in Indiana.

Lisa is a member of American Association for Paralegal Education (AAFPE) and the National Association of Legal Assistants (NALA). In addition she's had advanced paralegal and course studies in also a variety of executive support and project management studies from Sawyer College and Ball State University.

Lisa is a Certified Legal Assistant (CLA) and Certified Paralegal (CP)
